

THEE

Volume 116, No. 4
Thursday, January 23, 2020

COMFORT NEWS

SPS 125-020
Comfort, TX 78013

The only newspaper in our world that cares exclusively about the community of Comfort, Texas and has been reporting its news for more than 115 years.

Patton, overcoming pressure, wins 2020 CES Spelling Bee

Third grader AJ Patton, the winner of the official 2020 Comfort Elementary Spelling Bee is shown with runner-up Rachel Adams, a fifth grader. The Bee was held on January 17 and included 22 spellers from the 3rd, 4th and 5th grade classes. The spelling bee went for 17 rounds until Patton was crowned the CES spelling bee champion. His winning word was "pressure." The bee was called by Judi Youngers, shown behind Patton and Adams, and judged by Tamie Arnold and Connie Spenrath. (Photo by Kady Zunker)

Title of project:
Where would we be without pollinators?

